

PLAN

JURIED SHOW

The Duxbury Art Association has announced plans for a juried show of members works at Drew House from May 25 through June 7.

Members will submit works of art, oils, water colors or other artistic medium. There is no entry fee. The entries will be accepted at Drew House on Thursday, May 1 and Friday, May 2 from 1-5. Work which is selected will be stored in the library until the show is hung.

The Brockton Art Center is putting on an exhibit from May 15 to June 8 of juried work from the South Shore Art Associations. Duxbury Art Association has been invited to make four entries. These will be chosen from the entries made for the Duxbury show. Members who have had one of their works selected for the Brockton show may replace it with another work of art of their choosing.

4/17/69

BROCKTON DAILY ENTERPRISE—

TUESDAY, APRIL 22, 1969

Art Exhibit To Open at Library

DUXBURY. — The opening of a new art exhibit in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of the Duxbury Free Library will be held Sunday, April 27, from 4 to 6 P. M. The show, featuring paintings selected from Boston University's annual Master of Fine Arts Students Show, will run through May 20.

The eight young artists represented in the library gallery's show are: Regina Chan, Cynthia Eriksen, Marion Foster, Mel Hardin, Judy Bergman Hochberg, Nicholas Isaak, Jr., Andrea Olivia Kugler and Charles Staats. All are graduate students of the Master of Fine Arts program in painting of Boston University's School of Fine and Applied Arts.

Selections were made from the BU Student Show by Gay Youse of Duxbury, who plans and arranges the gallery shows for the Duxbury Free Library.

NEW SHOW AT BUMPUS GALLERY

The public is invited to the opening of a new exhibition Sunday, April 27, from 4-6 p.m. in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of the Duxbury Free Library. The new show, featuring paintings selected from Boston University's annual Master of Fine Arts Student Show, will run from April 27 through May 20.

The eight young artists represented in the show, who have been invited to Duxbury for the opening, are: Regina Chan of Shanghai, China, and the U.S.; Cynthia Eriksen of Queens, New York; Marion Foster of Pittsburgh, Penn.; Mel Hardin of Ohio; Judy Bergman Hochberg of N.Y.C.; Nicholas Isaak, Jr., of Manchester, N.H.; Andrea Olivia Kugler, of N.Y.C.; and Charles Staats of Charleston, West Virginia.

Selections were made from the B.U. Student Show by Gay Youse, who plans and arranges the gallery shows for the library.

4-24-69

OLD COLONY MEMORIAL, Plymouth, Mass.

Students exhibit at Bumpus Gallery

An exhibit of paintings and of drawings by graduate students at the Boston University School of Fine and Applied Arts may be seen through May 17 at the Helen Bumpus Gallery at the Duxbury Free Library.

Weekday hours are 2-8 p.m. and Saturday 10 a.m.-6 p.m.

The exhibitors include: Regina Chan, with "Window and Still Life with Ar'ichokes and Fruit"; Cynthia Erickson, "Runners" and "Figure"; Marion Foster, "Landscape," "Still Life With Orange," "Grecian Fragments"; Mel Hardin, "Wisteria," "Host"; Judy Bergman Hochberg, "Self Portrait," "Still Life"; Nicholas Isaak, "Still Life," "Still Life" (a drawing), "The Onion," "Still Life with Gourds"; Andrea Kugler, "Reclining Figure," "Still Life," "Still Life with Fish"; Charles Staats, "Picnic," "The Fates."

S. 02332, THURSDAY, MAY 1, 1969

Artists Will Talk

Several of the graduate students of Boston University's School of Fine and Applied Arts, whose work is now being exhibited in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of the Duxbury Free Library, will be at the gallery Thursday evening, May 1, at 8, for an informal gallery talk.

The public is invited to meet these young artists and to hear them discuss art and art careers. Duxbury students who are contemplating futures in the art world will be especially welcome.